

Family & Human Services

Education, Child Development,
& Family Services Industry

Program Overview

The Torrance Unified School District Family & Human Services Pathway provides students with the academic and technical skills needed to be successful in the field of Family & Consumer Sciences. Students will learn career development, financial literacy, personal responsibility, personal health and wellness, child, personal, & family development, family theories, dynamics of human relationships, and community resources.

Course Sequence

Personal & Family Management

Child, Family, & Community

Student Experiences

Students are involved in real-world learning experiences on campus and in the community.

- Career Preparation (Portfolio, Resume, Mock Interviews, etc.)
- Independent Living Projects (Food Preparation, Financial Literacy, etc.)
- Parenting Simulation with Real-Care Babies
- Membership in Family, Career, & Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) with the opportunity to participate in regional, state, and national competitions.

College & Career Ready

Students develop soft skills in communication, critical thinking, teamwork, leadership, and work ethic.

Students can earn an industry certification in

- Adult Roles & Financial Literacy
- Personal Financial Responsibility
- 21st Century Success Skills

Students have an opportunity to participate in internships with local companies.

Students earn UC/CSU "G" elective credit and are prepared to enter a degree program in Family & Consumer Studies.

