

BLACK
HISTORY
MONTH

Jefferson Middle School

“Do the best you can until you know better, then when you know better, do better.”

— Maya Angelou

Black History Month at JMS

Homeroom Door Decorating Contest

Choose a famous Black American to celebrate by creating an informational door decoration to highlight their accomplishments. The winning class will receive a prize.

Black History Month Quilt

Choose a Black American to highlight on our JMS Quilt to be displayed on campus.

Double Dutch

Evolving from Africa, Double Dutch is historically a jump rope game played originally by Black children (mainly girls) in rural and urban areas in America. Try it out during PE, Snack or lunch.

Black History Month at JMS

Poetry/Spoken Word/Rap Slam

Choose a famous Black American poem or song to perform at the Word Slam.

Visit the Black History Month Section in the library.

Visit our special section in the library to read selections by black authors and that feature black characters.

Black History Month Feature Film: Hidden Figures

Three brilliant African-American women at NASA -- Katherine Johnson, Dorothy Vaughan and Mary Jackson -- serve as the brains behind one of the greatest operations in history: the launch of astronaut John Glenn into orbit, a stunning achievement that restored the nation's confidence, turned around the Space Race and galvanized the world. Playing in the cafeteria at lunch (add dates).

JEOPARDY!

BLACK HISTORY MONTH EDITION

<https://joyofmuseums.com/most-popular/national-museums-united-states/civil-rights-museum/>

Take Virtual Tour of The National Civil Rights Museum

Inspirational Information Videos

Can Kids
Change The World?

Black History Month Film for the Middle School

I am Black
History

40 Black
History Month
Videos

